MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, National Foreign Assessment Center
FROM : Associate Coordinator for Academic Relations, NFAC
SUBJECT : University Presidents Visit

1. The next University Presidents Day is scheduled for 15 February. The date has been approved by Admiral Turner. Eleven of the people invited have accepted for that day. They are:

Thomas A. Bartlett	Association of American Universities
James Edward Cheek	Howard University
Richard Michael Cyert	Carnegie-Mellon University
Frederick Davison	University of Georgia
Robert Crocker Good	Denison University
William R. Harvey	Hampton Institute
Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh	University of Notre Dame
Philip G. Hoffman	University of Houston
George Michael Low	Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute
Robert William MacVicar	Oregon State University
Jean Mayer	Tufts University

In addition, Dr. William Hagerty, Drexel University, is trying to rearrange his schedule so that he will be able to attend the meeting.

2. Those who have accepted are highly articulate, energetic and represent a cross section of the academic community. The number of participants is the largest we have yet entertained and equals the number that have attended the previous three sessions.

3. The tentative program (see attachment) is similar to those previously run. Because of the comparatively large number of participants, we have lengthened the time allotted for Directorate briefings. The NFAC briefing is tentatively scheduled for 90 minutes, compared to the previous 75 minutes of the other meetings. In addition, the opening session with the DCI is being moved from the DCI Ante-Room to the DCI Conference Room and lunch will be held in the EDR instead of the DCI Dining Room. We have eliminated the one hour personal briefings.

4. I would suggest the following format for the NFAC briefing:

a. Introductory remarks on the structure and function of NFAC by yourself.

b. A briefing on the expanding and changing role of economic and political intelligence by Hans Heymann.

c. A briefing on SALT by [REDACTED]

d. Follow-up remarks by [REDACTED]

These briefings would provide a good well-rounded summary of the types of research being conducted in NFAC and would limit participation of front office people to two NIOs and only two Office Directors.
